Toronto-based South St Burger Co., an upscale quick-service eatery, officially opened its seventh location in the Greater Toronto Area, in Burlington, ON. To commemorate the opening, South St. Burger Co. is hosting a media event today, December 1. South St, a division of New York Fries, has a menu that features fresh, 1/3-pound patties made with 100% locally and naturally raised Canadian beef that's hormone and antibiotic-free. It also offers grilled chicken breasts, veggie burgers, authentic New York Fries and poutine, hand-made onion rings and hand-scooped ice-cream milkshakes. The onion rings, like the fries, are fresh-cut and cooked in non-hydrogenated sunflower oil. South St. Burger Co., located at 738 Burloak Drive (south east of the QEW), is open 11 a.m. until 10 p.m., seven days a week, with free on-site parking. During the holiday season, South St. Burger Co. is also participating in a toy drive with the Salvation Army. As a special offer, customers who bring in a new, unwrapped toy for the toy drive will receive a free burger.
